GM SERVICE REPLACEMENT POWERTRAIN & GM PERFORMANCE PARTS LIMITED WARRANTY FOR: ENGINES, ENGINE COMPONENTS, TRANSMISSIONS, TRANSMISSION COMPONENTS, & TRANSFER CASES

THIS WARRANTY DOES NOT COVER:

- Damage due to improper installation, negligence, alteration, accident, improper use, or any use related to racing, track, or competition. Proper vehicle use is discussed in the vehicle Owner's Manual. In addition, coverage does not apply if the odometer has been disconnected or the mileage reading has been altered.
- Damage caused by lack of proper maintenance as described in the vehicle's original Owner's Manual/Maintenance Schedule, failure to follow Maintenance Schedule intervals, or failure to use or maintain proper type and levels of fluid, fuel, oil, and lubricants recommended in the Owner's Manual/Maintenance Schedule. Proof of proper maintenance is the owner's responsibility. Keep all receipts and be prepared to make them available if questions arise about maintenance.
- Damage as a result of overheating, contamination, or lack of lubrication.
- Damage caused by a turbocharger, supercharger, nitrous oxide, or similar product, which is not an approved GM Performance Part or Accessory.
- Racing engines and/or their components.
- Use of components in excess of maximum torque specification.
- Damage as a result of modification/replacement of torque converter that is part of transmission assembly.
- Loss of time, inconvenience, loss of use, or other economic loss.
- Vehicles registered and normally operated outside of the United States.
- This warranty does not apply to any unit installed under the General Motors New-Vehicle Limited Warranty.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

The GM dealer or independent service center must be furnished with the purchaser's original repair order or sales slip (or dealer's photocopy). This warranty is transferable to subsequent owners by providing the above required documents to any purchaser of the vehicle in which the assembly/component was originally installed.

OBTAINING REPAIRS

GM Dealer Installation —The GM dealer who initially installed the assembly/component or any GM dealer may perform the repairs. You must allow a reasonable period of time for repairs following delivery of the vehicle to the GM dealer's place of business.

Independent Service Center Installation —The independent service center that installed the assembly/component or any GM dealer may perform repairs. Before any repairs can be performed under warranty by an independent service center, the selling GM dealer (or any GM dealer) must first authorize needed repairs as a sublet service.

Emergency Repairs (GM Dealers Only) —Reimbursement to an owner for repairs performed by other than a GM dealer will be considered when GM dealer service was not available (e.g., weekends, evenings, etc.) or when repairs were made in a foreign country where warranty repairs by a GM dealer were difficult to obtain.

 PERFORMANCE PARTS

Policies - GM Goodwrench Service Replacement Engines or Automatic Transmission/Transaxle Assemblies Limited Warranty

- Applies only when purchased as a retail transaction. (Retail Transaction is defined as customer paying all or any portion of transaction.) Goodwill adjustments where the purchaser participates and for GMPP repairs, (or other service contract), are eligible for the longer consumer warranty. Coverage does not apply when replaced during the New Vehicle Limited Warranty period.
  - NOTE: See warranty certificate for specific coverage. The GM Goodwrench Transmission Limited Warranty Statement provides warranty coverage for automatic Goodwrench transmissions only. Goodwrench manual transmissions are covered under the General Motors Service Agent Service Replacement Parts and Accessories Warranty.
- Service Agent issues to purchaser at the time of retail sale or installation a warranty certificate along with a copy of the Service Agent sales slip or Job Card.
- Service Agent is to verify warranty eligibility by requesting, from the purchaser, a copy of the warranty certificate, and the original of the Job Card or sales slip showing the installation/purchase.
